

District Council Collaborative Boards

Background: DCCBs were formed in an effort to improve the conditions of the city by bridging the gap between the major stakeholders: the community, law enforcement and city government. Camden is made up of four separately governed districts whose mission it is to improve public safety and quality of life of their communities.

